Find your bloc before the timer starts

Use the last speech before the motion to name the delegations you want to work with. They will come to you.

Hold the pen

Whoever types the working paper decides its first draft. Bring a laptop and volunteer.

Leave with sponsors, not friends

Before the caucus ends, ask directly: will you sponsor or sign? A yes in the room is worth three promises in the hallway.

Start with your country, not the topic

The paper exists to tell the dais where your delegation stands. Open with your government's position in two sentences, then justify it.

Three sections, one page each

- Background: what the council has already done, with resolution numbers.
- Your position: what your government supports, opposes, and will not accept.
- Solutions: two or three operative ideas you would bring to a draft resolution.

What gets a paper marked down

Copying the study guide back to the chair, citing no sources, and proposing solutions your country would never vote for.

Marking Templates

Score criteria chairs use to grade delegates. Each becomes a column in the chair Marking matrix — chairs can't score anyone until at least one exists. Every criterion is scored on a −100 to +100 scale (use negatives to penalise invalid points, out-of-order motions or disruption). The daily % is the average of the criteria a chair actually scores that day. Optionally auto-fill a column from live-session participation (chairs still review & can override).

Marking pattern
Chairs score each criterion on a −100…+100 numeric scale.

decimal

Criterion	Range	Auto-fill from
Debate & Speeches	−100…+100	none
Diplomacy & Lobbying	−100…+100	none

4 criteria · daily % = average of scored criteria

Final Scoring

The final score is a consistency-first average of a delegate's daily % across every conference day (a missed day counts as 0%). On the final day a chair can also enter a manual holistic overall mark (−100…+100) that blends in by the weight below.

Chair overall weight

30%

final = 70% computed + 30% chair overall

Conference days (optional override)

Auto-derived from marks — e.g. 2026-07-01, 2026-07-02, 2026-07-03

Leave blank to derive days from marked dates. Set explicit `YYYY-MM-DD` dates (comma-separated) to count absent days toward consistency.
